AT Dear [redacted]

As a long time Balkan Scholar and author of a forthcoming book on "Bulgaria During the Second World War," I would like to request access to OSS-CIA records relating to Bulgaria in the immediate post-war period (summer 1944-1948) now held in custody for you at the National Archives.

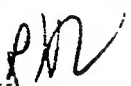

I am interested generally in political developments during this period, particularly those relating to U. S.-Bulgaria relations, and specifically U. S. involvement with the non-Communist opposition groups.

Needless to say, I have no desire to imperil individuals and their families still under Communist control nor to jeopardize American relations with Eastern Europe.

Yours truly,
